Re: DMCA Notice of Copyright Infringement
on Google Cache of "www.ex-premie.org"

Dear ██████████

We are counsel for Elan Vital, Inc. ("EVI") and are responsible for the policing of intellectual property belonging to EVI.

EVI is the holder of a wide range of copyright interests in a catalog of intellectual property including copyrights for which it receives protection under the laws of the United States and over 80 countries around the world. EVI has expended considerable resources acquiring, promoting and protecting this intellectual property.

It has come to our attention that your server hosts a cache of a Web site dedicated to an ongoing series of acts that violate the proprietary rights of EVI. Specifically, we have learned that www.ex-premie.org, which is routinely cached by your company, unquestionably and unlawfully violates EVI's valid and subsisting copyright interests. This Web site, and the constituent pages therein, makes up a staggering virtual library of infringing works: nearly 100 photographs and works of visual arts; more than 49 proprietary literary works, including the complete texts to 14 complete songs and an entire book. Moreover, the infringing Web site cached by your company has collected many of these works onto downloadable files for the specific purpose of facilitating further infringing "file-sharing" distribution. A list of URL's upon which infringing material appears is attached as "Schedule A."

Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 512 ("the Digital Millennium Copyright Act" or "DMCA"), we assert and hereby place Google, Inc. on notice that the communications in question are in violation of our client's proprietary rights. Failure to act in accordance with the DMCA may result in damages and injunctive relief being awarded against Google, Inc. for vicarious infringement.

As required by the DMCA, we hereby state that we have a good faith belief that the use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent or the law. The information in this notification is accurate. Further, under penalty of perjury, I represent that we are authorized to act on behalf of EVI in policing its proprietary interests.

In light of the above, we demand that you immediately remove or deny public access to Google's cache of the infringing Web site. We also request that you provide us with written assurance within 72 hours of receipt of this letter that such compliance has been effectuated.

Finally, we respectfully remind you that access to the infringing Web site through its cache may be reinstated only upon fax or mail service of a counter notification that fully complies with the stricture of Sections 512(g)(2) and (3) of the DMCA, including the infringer's consent to suit in the United States Federal District Court and waiver of jurisdictional challenge. This notice, and the Schedule attached hereto shall not be construed as a waiver of any claim in part or in whole by EVI, its licensees, licensors, or any affiliated entities, and all rights under common law and statute are expressly reserved.

If I may answer any questions or provide further information, please call me at your earliest convenience.

Very truly yours, \
